Expect More With Meritain Health

We believe employers deserve more. As a leading provider of employee health benefits, we take every opportunity to educate and apply our consultative approach to ensure the success of your health and wellness programs.

Expect More Listening

“Meritain Health worked with us to design a health plan tailored to our organization’s objectives. That was the beginning of a tremendous partnership.”

– Dr. Mike Williams, Executive Committee of the Baptist Convention of Georgia

Meritain Health employs a collaborative approach to health benefits planning. The first step is basic: We listen.

Expect More Savings

“Meritain Health met with our employees and explained why it’s their responsibility to help keep costs down. Encouraging them to have good health is less expensive for the city and better for them.”

– Deborah Murdock, Human Resources
City of North Platte, Nebraska

Meritain Health offers a comprehensive total population management program built entirely on a simple, yet innovative idea—preventing illness is the most effective strategy to reduce healthcare costs. It provides the tools and resources to motivate employees to change their behaviors and achieve their healthcare goals.

Expect More Results

“We meet with Meritain Health regularly, analyzing management reports so we can anticipate emerging trends that will help us achieve our financial objectives.”

– Ed Draper, CFO, Furniture Row
